AN ACT concerning employer COVID-19 vaccine requirements; requiring exemptions; providing for waiver requests and a civil action for violations related to exemptions.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

- Section 1. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if an employer implements a COVID-19 vaccine requirement, the employer shall exempt an employee from such requirement if the employee submits a written waiver request to the employer stating that complying with such requirement would:
- (1) Endanger the life or health of the employee or an individual who resides with the employee, as evidenced by an accompanying written statement signed by a physician licensed by the state board of healing arts or an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the board of nursing; or
- (2) violate sincerely held religious beliefs of the employee, as evidenced by an accompanying written statement signed by the employee.
- (b) An employer shall grant an exemption requested in accordance with this section based on sincerely held religious beliefs without inquiring into the sincerity of the request.
- (c) (1) An employee aggrieved by a violation of this section may bring a civil action in an appropriate district court against an employer for injunctive relief and actual damages caused by such violation.
- (2) In an action under this section, the court shall award a prevailing plaintiff the cost of the suit, including reasonable attorney fees.
 - (d) As used in this section:
 - (1) "COVID-19 vaccine" means an immunization, vaccination or injection against disease caused by the novel coronavirus identified as SARS-CoV-2 or disease caused by a variant of the virus;

- (2) "COVID-19 vaccine requirement" means that an employer:
